WHAT THEY CALL IT.

Grandma says we're right in style.
A-sittin' in our auto-mo-bile.
Grandpa says we're fit to kill.
A-ridin' in our auto-mo-bile.
Ma, she says we ought to feel
Gratful for our auto-mo-bile.
Pa says there ain't no other man
Kin run an auto like he can.
Auntie preaches near and far
'Bout our lovely touring car.
Uncle Bill says he ain't seen
Nowhere such a good machine.
Brother Jim, he keeps a-braggin'
'Bout the speed of our new wagon.
But, oh, it sounds so grand and noble
When sister Sue says automobile.

Wilbur Long died of general debility at his home at Mt. Sterling, aged 98.

Mr. Louis Schatzmann of The Ledger force has been housed for several days, having contracted a good cold.

Mrs. William Sutherland of Escalopia Springs, who has been seriously ill for many months, is now convalescing at Morgantown, W. Va.

Representative W. C. Halbert of Lewis county has introduced a bill at Frankfort limiting the passenger rates on all railroads in the state to two cents a mile for all distances over ten miles.

Call and let me show what a handsome Diamond Ring, Stud or Pendant I can sell you for little money. Prices are guaranteed lower than you buy for anywhere.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Personal

Hon. J. N. Kehoe is in Cincinnati on business today.

Miss Mildred McKibben of Augusta is visiting Miss Mary O. Hunter in the county.

Dr. C. M. Beach and little son of Escalopia Springs were in the city yesterday.

Misses Tillie and Jessie Roberts of Lexington are guests of Miss Anna Frank, en route to Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Mrs. Lizzie Wilson Power of East Third, Mrs. May V. Wilson of West Fourth and Mrs. O. B. Stitt of West Second left on the morning train for Cincinnati.

Mr. N. J. Stevens, wife and child, have returned to their home in Ashkun, Ill., after a visit of several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McNutt of West Third street.

James Hord, colored, aged about 75 years, died this morning at his home in Washington.

Newton Miles, Baggage-master, died yesterday, making the third victim of the recent L. and N. collision at Latonia.

Miss Katie Hunt is contemplating the erection of a modern and up-to-date cottage on her lot in Plum street adjoining her residence. This city is lacking in desirable dwellings, the demand at present being far beyond the supply.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Martin and niece, Miss Lottie Otto, will leave tomorrow for Los Angeles, Cal. Their many friends here wish them a pleasant sojourn in the land of flowers, and after they have tired of the novelty and sigh for home, a safe return where a warm welcome awaits them. Kentucky wants such men as Captain Martin to remain as loyal sons of the old Commonwealth.

Good city property for sale by John Duley.

Mumps are prevalent in the Tuckahoe, Minerva and Fernleaf neighborhoods.

It costs several hundred dollars to give a successful tobacco fair. How much have you helped?

Dr. C. W. Harris, Mayor of Mt. Sterling, has been sued for $1,000 damages by Jailer Charles Wilson, whom Mayor Harris had arrested for firing a pistol in the city limits. Wilson was acquitted, hence the suit.

A committee will call on our citizens who have not contributed anything to the Tobacco Fair, and ask their financial assistance to pay the expenses of the worthy enterprise. Do not wait to be asked. Do your duty.

Colonel B. A. Wallingford of this city, whose son is a brother-in-law of the groom-to-be, and who is the only Maysvillian to receive an invitation, will not be able to attend the Longworth-Roosevelt wedding at the White House tomorrow. Too long a trip for a man to carry so many years and gray hairs.

Mr. Dan Norris has been quite sick at his home at Fernleaf the past two weeks.

A five weeks revival at the Christian Church at Portsmouth has resulted in 528 conversions.

Mr. J. T. Degman, son of Colonel and Mrs. C. C. Degman of Springdale, and a cadet at the Maysville Military Academy in 1898-9, is now one of the wide-awake miners of Manhattan, Nev. Mr. Degman writes THE LEDGER that from December 15th, 1905, to February 1st, 1906, Manhattan has grown from a population of 50 to 5,000 inhabitants. In partnership with a mining attorney from San Francisco, Mr. Degman has purchased valuable mining claims in the Manhattan district, which promise rich returns. His Mason county friends will be glad to learn of his success in the far Western country.

However, when you consider that at present we are selling Suits and Overcoats at just about two-thirds and a good many at one-half their actual value it is no surprise that we are doing the clothing business of the town. Plain, light weight, clinging solid-color Silks are very popular for both street and house gowns. The shades are exquisite—even the names are alluring. By a vote of 71 Honest Men to 14 Democrats the Kentucky House finally refused to unseat Republican Representative HANNAH of Greenup and to seat Democratic Judge COLE in his seat.

If the members of the Kentucky Legislature would only pass a tax law like the one in Pennsylvania, Kentucky would soon enjoy some of the prosperity of Pennsylvania. There, they do not tax either capital or manufacturers, and hence they have plenty of both; here, we tax both, and as a consequence have very little of either.

MANAGERS of the big railroads don't appear much disturbed over the passage of the 2-cent-rate measure in Ohio. They simply say that the public will be the sufferer, as they will get fewer accommodations for their money; and in order to make the receipts equal expenses, it will be necessary to discharge a large number of present employees.

I DON'T know who Mrs. DRUKKER is; but it is quite apparent that she has more money than most people have. At a Hen Convention a few days ago she said—"It takes $5,000 a year to educate properly and marry off the modern daughter." I presume the good lady refers to such "properly" educated and "properly" married daughters as the Countess BONI DE CASTELLANE, etc.; but in this neck of the woods of Old Kentucky there are oodles of "rocked" girls whose education and "marrying off" won't cost a tenth of the money, but who are worth their weight in gold.

WHAT will the W. C. T. U. do after the LONGWORTH—ROOSEVELT wedding is over, and there'll be no more suggestions as to the gift of punch bowls and wine-drinking at the wedding breakfast? Perhaps one of the strongest reasons why the temperance movement does not make greater progress is because of the large number of fools who are at the head of it.

SPEAKING of "walking arsenals," what do you think of the Honorable FRANK PERIGRIM, an Italian explosive factory, arrested by the Chicago police. Here's a bill of lading of his cargo—a bottle of nitroglycerine, a bomb six inches long, a double-edged stiletto a foot long, six vials containing colored liquids of unknown composition, five $100 Confederate bills and a saw twelve inches long, made for the purpose of cutting iron. The gentleman informed the police that he had a "mission," and it really looks as though he told the truth.

THE Louisville Post prints this from its special Washington correspondent—

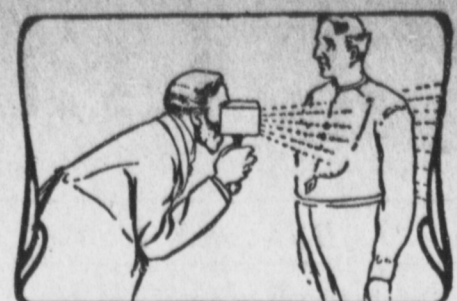

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 29th.—Representative FRED LANDIS of Indiana has in his desk at the Capitol a lengthy signed statement by Mayor CHARLES A. BOOKWALTER of Indianapolis, in which Mayor BOOKWALTER gives graphic details of an effort which he said was made by TOM CAMPBELL, Attorney for the Goebelites, to permit him to allow former Governor W. S. TAYLOR of Kentucky to be kidnapped from Indianapolis. According to BOOKWALTER's formal charge, during his first term as Mayor he was invited by a man whom he supposed to be his friend to come to Cincinnati. When he got there he was introduced to TOM CAMPBELL. Subsequently he was invited to dine at his friend's house, and CAMPBELL, without BOOKWALTER's knowledge, was invited also.

After dinner, the statement continues, the host left CAMPBELL and BOOKWALTER together, and CAMPBELL then offered BOOKWALTER $25,000 if he would allow Goebel sleuths to come to Indianapolis and take TAYLOR away. BOOKWALTER indignantly repudiated the offer, and when he returned home he ordered a strong police guard placed about TAYLOR's house, and warned TAYLOR to keep indoors. By request of Mr. LANDIS, Mayor BOOKWALTER has furnished him a detailed statement of the occurrence.

Mr. LANDIS proposes to make a speech on the Kentucky situation, and to read BOOKWALTER's statement to the House.

"I am sure," he said, "that will do much to fix National attention on Democratic methods in Kentucky and to show to the world what kind of men are after POWERS."

CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

Inside facts soon become evident in outside symptoms.—DR. G. G. GREEN.

THE aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence.

THERE is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and no serious disease that can be so quickly reached and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption.

IT is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, when warnings are given in the cough that won't quit, the congestion of the bronchial tubes and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectoration. But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. William F. Hall of Forest avenue entertained yesterday afternoon with a card party.

Miss Esther Taulbee entertained the Euchre Club Wednesday at the St. Charles Hotel from 2 to 5. It was one of the most delightful social events of the season.

A pleasant social event of the week was the Epworth League Valentine Party at the M. E. Church on the evening of the 14th.

The Church parlors were prettily decorated with hearts and ribbons of red and white, the E. L. colors, Cupid's arrow being within easy reach, so that all might try to "win a heart." On each heart was a rhyme, the party choosing the heart being compelled to read aloud the rhyme, thus causing much merriment.

Cardboard, scissors and pencils were furnished the guests, ten minutes being given in which to make a valentine, writing thereon an original rhyme. Quite a variety of designs and verses were handed in, Miss Katie Porter winning the prize with a valentine of two hearts and a clever drawing of Fritz and Hans. Mr. John Walsh received the consolation prize.

The reading of the League's Loquacious Literary Ledger was received with the usual interest and applause.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE

Some of Yesterday's Doin's By "Wise Guys" at Frankfort

By a vote of 71 to 14 the House refused to unseat Representative Hannah, Republican, of Greenup county, whose seat was contested by Judge W. T. Cole, Democrat. Only fourteen Democrats voted for Cole.

The Assembly adopted a resolution calling on Kentucky Congressmen to assist in defeating the destruction of Niagara Falls.

The passage of the poolroom bill by the House was the one theme of conversation among the poolroom attaches and followers. The heavy penalty attached will, if the bill passes the Senate and is confirmed by the Court of Appeals, put an end to poolrooms in Kentucky after enjoying a run of about twenty-five years. The elimination of the clause preventing pool selling on race tracks made the passage of the remainder of the bill relating wholly to poolrooms easy. A hard fight will be made against its passage in the Senate.

A TRAINED NURSE

After Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate nurse from the Blockley Training School, at Philadelphia, and for six years Chief Clinic Nurse at the Philadelphia Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education, and what she has to say may be absolutely relied upon.

Many other women are afflicted as she was. They can regain health in the same way. It is prudent to heed such advice from such a source. Mrs. Pohlman writes: "I am firmly persuaded, after eight years of experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and best medicine for any suffering woman to use."

"Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale, with severe bearing-down pains, fearful backaches and frequent dizzy spells. The doctors prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I would blot after eating, and frequently become nauseated. I had pains down through my limbs so I could hardly walk. It was as bad a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasion to recommend it to a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered unprofessional to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have found that it cures female ills, where all other medicine fails. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results, and the ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of the female organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see. The money which they pay to doctors who do not help them is an enormous waste. The pain is cured and the money is saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant for many years before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. In her great experience, which covers many years, she has probably had to deal with dozens of cases just like yours. Her advice is strictly confidential.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

WHAT SHE SOUGHT

Had Desire For One Article at Captain Martin's Sale

Perhaps the best equipped farm in the country was that of Captain John T. Martin.

Among other essentials, especially in guarding the henry and chicken roost, was a Mantrap which excited considerable curiosity during the big sale.

Among the number who inspected the workings of the intricate and queer machine was a clever and witty lady of this city, and while not in her teens she is not to be classed in the "sear and yellow leaf" by any means, who is credited with the following smart quip—

"Well, Captain," said the lady from the Seven Acre City, addressing the genial lord of the manor, "there is only one thing I see here that I really desire to possess."

"And pray, what may that be?" replied the handsome and suave Captain.

"That Mantrap," she replied.

"I have been a pilgrim, to these many years, in quest of a husband. I have not been able to land one yet, and that man-catcher out there in the barn appears as my only salvation. At least it is a beacon light of hope, as it were, that by chance, if I had it, I might trap one." The Mantrap went to a higher bidder, however, and the poor girl is now forlorn, with all hopes banished.

SKIN ECZEMA IN WORST FORM

Black Splotches All Over Face—Produced Severe Itching—Year's Treatment by Physicians Did No Good and Became Despondent—Affected Parts Now Clear as Ever—Alabama Lady's

CURE BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"About four years ago I was afflicted with black splotches all over my face and a few covering my body, which produced a severe itching irritation, and which caused me a great deal of annoyance and suffering, to such an extent that I was forced to call in two of the leading physicians of my town. After a thorough examination of the dreaded complaint they announced it to be skin eczema in its worst form. They treated me for the same for the length of one year, but the treatment did me no good. "Finally I became despondent and decided to discontinue their services. Shortly afterwards, my husband in reading a copy of a weekly New York paper saw an advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies. He purchased the entire outfit, and after using the contents of the first bottle of Cuticura Resolvent in connection with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, the breaking out entirely stopped. I continued the use of the Cuticura Remedies for six months, and after that every splotch was entirely gone and the affected parts were left as clear as ever. I have not felt a symptom of the eczema since, which was three years ago.

"The Cuticura Remedies not only cured me of that dreadful disease, eczema, but other complicated troubles as well, and I have been the means of others being cured of the same disease by the Cuticura Remedies, and I don't hesitate in saying that the Resolvent is the best blood medicine that the world has ever known." ### SPRINGDALE.

Mr. Bradford of Ohio was here Sunday. Rumor says there will be a wedding near here soon.
Miss Rena Coryell was calling on friends here last Tuesday.
Mrs. T. P. Degman made a flying trip to Maysville Wednesday.
Mr. T. O. Brooke of Trinity spent Monday with relatives here.
Miss Margaret Otto has returned from an extended visit to friends at Portsmouth.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Otto of Garrison were pleasant guests of relatives here Tuesday and Wednesday.
Miss Edna McDonald is slowly recovering from a spell of fever. Dr. Stephenson of Manchester is attending her. She was the recipient of several beautiful valentines and a handsome bouquet of natural carnation pinks from her aunt, Mrs. Brown, of Urbana, Ill.

Miss Della Goodwin, our pleasant and agreeable schoolteacher, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives at Trinity.

After two years stay in Ohio Mr. and Mrs. Will Wilson are again settled in their old Kentucky home, much to the delight of their many friends.

Elder T. P. Degman preached quite able sermons at Bethany last Lord's Day, morning and also at night. This little Church is still progressing, not only spiritually, but financially. This fall and winter it has been furnished with a beautiful new Bible, a handsome new clock, two nice new stoves, and last but not least there has been placed on its wall a life-size portrait of Rev. T. P. Degman, who has been a faithful Pastor for this Church for thirty years.

FOXPORT.

Miss Dora Martin has returned from a visit to Muncie, Ind.

Mr. L. N. Williams and bride have gone to housekeeping in Saybrook, Ill.

Otto Carpenter, wife and little son, Archie, are the pleasant guests of relatives here.

Miss Edna Doyle visited Miss Bessie Jones at Maysville last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Julia Million, who has been suffering from acute rheumatism, is very much improved.

Albert Carpenter of Plummer's passed through here Sunday en route to Maysville.

Will Million has been so unfortunate as to lose about five head of calves this winter from some new disease.

Miss Maggie Carpenter is spending her vacation with her brother and sister at Trinity, Lewis county.

Mrs. Lula Bowman has returned home from a two month's visit with her parents and sisters at Lancaster.

Miss Phenix Doyle has been visiting her uncle and cousin, M. T. and C. D. Doyle of Goddard, for the past week.

Earnest, Clarice and Jimmie, three charming little children of Will Million, have about recovered from typhoid fever.

Tim Riley, whose death was mentioned in Friday's LEDGER, was well known here, having once taught a writing school at this place.

John Christian of Mt. Sterling, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. K. A. Christian, here for the past week, intends to go to Pittsburgh, Pa., soon.

Erastus Gardner, our Rural Mail Carrier, had the misfortune to break the spring in his mail wagon last week, and has been going the route in his buggy since.

Elijah Boling, whom we mentioned in our last items as being so ill, continues quite low with Bright's disease and but little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Marshall Parker of Burtonville was here last week looking at tobacco, but we have heard of no sales made to him. Several are hauling their crops to Nepton, and receiving good prices for same.

M. T. Doyle, wife and son, Jesse, of Goddard, visited relatives here from Friday 'til Sunday.

Mrs. Samuel Humphries of Maysville came very near burning to death last Saturday morning. She was lying on a pallet by the fire, reading, and her dress caught fire. She jumped up and ran out in the yard where her husband was and by the time she reached him she was burned so badly the doctors have but little hope for her recovery. Her husband is a nephew of Mrs. Julia Million, George and Hiram Humphries of this place.

"Quite a number of the old mossheads in the Legislature at Frankfort are fighting the proposed dog tax bill, all of which goes to show that Dr. Bowman was not very far off when, once upon a time, he declared in a speech that the reason Ohio was so far ahead of Kentucky was that in Ohio they vote the Republican ticket and raise sheep, while in Kentucky, we vote the Democratic ticket and raise dogs." This is copied from the Goddard items in last week's Fleming Gazette. It is too good not to pass on.

Ladies, read this catalogue of charms. Bright eyes, glowing cheeks, red lips, a smooth skin without a blemish, in short, perfect health. For sale with every package Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents. J. James Wood & Son.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Pains of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Maysville cures are the proof.

W. H. Paul, carpenter by trade, living at 233 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I value Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as I did when I first used them in 1899. I got a box and used it for a pain in my back and other evidences of a disordered condition of the kidneys which had given me much trouble for two years or more. This remedy acted promptly and I was soon cured. I did not notice any of the difficulties until some four years later, or about a year ago. I again procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, and all symptoms of the trouble were quickly and thoroughly removed. Since then I have not noticed any signs of trouble of any kind arising from my back or kidneys. I most cheerfully re-indorse Doan's Kidney Pills, for they are certainly worthy of recommendation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

MAYSVILLE.

2 Stocks in 1 2 Pairs for Price of 1

The Greatest SHOE Sale Maysville Has Ever Seen

At DAN COHEN'S GREAT WESTERN SHOE STORE.

Dan bought the entire stock of Mr. W. W. Ball, Trustee of W. R. Smith & Co., at his own price for Cash. The stock was all nearly new and bought expressly for Maysville's fine trade. Such a chance seldom comes. These goods must be sold before our spring stock arrives, so come quick and you will do as many are doing—buy several pairs, because they are such good Shoes and so very cheap.

Yours for Dry Feet,

W. H. MEANS, Manager.
